WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 9, 1869. Dear Journal:-The very interesting ease, Thornington against Smith & Hartlev, involving transactions in Confederate notes at the South during the war, was argued yesterday in the Supreme Court. The action was upon a note for $10,000, made at Montgomery, Ala., in November, 1864, by the appellees, and payable one day after date. The defence was that at the date of the note there was no lawful should be made in such money, and not in money lawful in the United States .-District Court in Alabama, from which an appeal was taken to this Court. Case still held open. The case of Farrington vs. hat of Yerger, of Mississippi, and the dether. Hon. Amos Kendall is still very sick.

There is no hope entertained of his reoverv.

A distinguished Methodist Minister and prominent Temperance Lecturer once remarked that go where he would, from one end of the country to the other, he hardly failed to find PLANTATION BITTERS, and while he condemned the practice of using these Bitters too freely, he could not conscientiously say that he would discard them from the side board, for he had himself experienced beneficial results from their use, and that, from a long and close observation, he was convinced The election in this city to-day passed off that when used moderately, and as a medicine exclusively, they were all that was recommended. At the same time he warned his hearers not to pull the cork too often, for they were too pleasant a tonic to trifle with. MAGNOLIA WATER .- Superior to the best im-

OF THE The election of officers of the Valley Railroad WILMINGTON MARKETS

FOR THE WEEK ENDING THURSDAY.

October 14, 1869, TURPENTINE-During the week just closed the market for this article has ruled with more firmness, and the price of soft shows an advance of 10 cents on previous quotation. There has existed a steady demand, and parcels have found ready sale upon arrival-closing at $2 60 for virgin and yellow dip, and $1 50 for hard, W bbl. of 280 lbs. The arrivals for the week have been better, the recent rise in the river having enabled parcels from above tide-way to reach market, and the sales are 2,318 bbls. as follows: Bbls. Virgin and Yellow Dip. Hard. $2 50 $1 50 Saturday .. 200 1 50 firmness, and at an advance of fully one cent on previous day's quotation—sales being made at 43@43\(\frac{1}{2}\) cents. On Saturday, however, there was some duliness, and the price declined to 42 cents, at which it generally ruled up to Tuesday, when it closed dull. No sales have since been reported; factors holding at 42 cents and upwards, and buyers unwilling to pay this price, and are offer-

POULTRY .- Market very poorly supplied, and demand good. Live chickens sell at 25 to 35 ets., and grown fowls at 40@45 cents each, as to size. PROVISIONS - For North Carolina cured Bacon the market rules about the same as last reported. There is none coming in, and the market is entirely bare, while a brisk demand exists for retailing purposee. In the absence of sales we quote nominally at 20@22 cents for sides, 21@23 cents for hog round, and 23@25 cents in th. for hams, as in quality. With Western cared the market is moderately supplied, and rules rather irmer at a shade advance in prices. Sales a c being made from store at 185@19 cents for shoulders, 211@22 cents for sides, and 274@23 cents 7 fb, for hams. LAND Northern continues in very good supply, with merely a small business doing from store at 17) to 23 cents of B -Pous -Northern is in moderate supply, and has declined a shade.
